

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF ATLANTA
1000 Peachtree Street, NE
Atlanta, Georgia 30309

PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION

The Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta is located adjacent to the Midtown Transit Station, which is serviced by the Gold and Red Lines of MARTA. For detailed information regarding train schedules, please visit itsmarta.com. As you depart the Midtown Station and come up the stairs to street level, walk east on 10th Street for one block to access the main entrance of the Bank.

PARKING

Public parking is not available at the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta. For information about where to park in the vicinity of the Bank, including real-time information about availability of parking in surface lots and public parking decks in the midtown area near the Bank, visit parkopedia.com.

ENTRANCE TO THE BUILDING

The Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta is located at 1000 Peachtree Street, NE. You must enter the building through the main front entrance at the corner of 10th and Peachtree Streets, under the tall marble column with the big bronze eagle on top.

BANK SECURITY PROCEDURES

All visitors must present a valid photo I.D. to enter the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta. Due to the careful security check as you enter the Bank, you should allow at least 30-45 minutes to get into the building, through security, escorted to the meeting room,*

Visitors will be required to pass through a metal detector and have any bags, purses, or briefcases examined by x-ray machine when entering the lobby. Hand searches of bags or purses are left to the discretion of the law enforcement officers on duty.

No firearms, weaponized objects, or cameras are allowed inside the building. Persons found with these items will not be allowed entry into the building. Taking photographs inside the Bank is strictly prohibited. Cell phones are permitted, but they may not be used to capture still or video photographic images.

Once you have passed security and entered the Bank, you will not be allowed to leave without an escort and will be required to pass through security again if you re-enter.

ADA access: American Disability Act-approved doors are available in the lobby to ensure our physically challenged guests are granted easy access inside the building. Please notify a law enforcement officer in the lobby if specific accommodations are necessary to ensure the comfort and safety of guests with special needs.

The Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta is a smoke-free facility. There is no smoking allowed inside the building, or the open air courtyards adjoining the conference center. The designated smoking area is outside the rear of the building on Peachtree Walk. Smoking is permitted 50' from the back door of the building.